4.3 FURNISHING OF SERVICE (Cont'd)

4.3.6 Classifications of Service

A. Basis for Classification

1. The determination as to whether customer service should be classified as business or residence service is based on the character of the use to be made of the service and facilities. This consideration is, in all cases, the basis upon which the rates for any particular service are classified, and any indices of such character of use should be applied with this primary definition in mind.
2. The Company reserves the right to classify any local service furnished a customer as business or residence service, in compliance with this Tariff.

B. Application of Business Rates

- 3 Residence locations when the customer has no regular business service, and the continued, recurring use of the service over an extended period of time either by the customer, members of his/her household, or his/her guests, or parties calling him/her can be considered as more of a business than of a residential nature. An extended period of time would be one month or longer. This fact might be indicated by typical forms of advertising, or when such business use is not such as commonly arises and passes over residence telephones during the intervals when, in compliance with the law or established custom, business places are ordinarily closed.
4. Residence locations where the residence is physically connected to a place of business or an office is maintained within the premises, the customer has no regular business service, and it is not evident that the service located in the residence is to be employed primarily for domestic use.

 4. The residence of a clergyman or nurse, physician, surgeon, dentist, veterinarian, or other medical practitioner, or certain other professional groups, provided no business designation is employed and the customer does not maintain an office within the residence in which a telephone or jack is located. Titles such as "Dr.", "Rev.", "Judge", and "Professor" are not considered business designations when associated with individual names. If listings of firms or partnerships, etc., or additional listings of persons not residing in the same household are desired, business rates apply.
 5. In fire department meeting rooms, dormitories or sleeping quarters where the telephone number is not published and the service is not available for use by the general public.
